

In the Supreme Court of the State of Alaska

Kamil Maalah,

Appellant,

v.

Trident Seafoods and Liberty
Insurance Corporation,

Appellees.

Supreme Court No. S-17537

Order

Date of Order: February 26, 2020

AWCAC Appeal No. 18-022

On January 30, 2020, Mr. Maalah filed a Motion for Time to Prove by Evidence Trident Records Incomplete. On February 11, 2020, the Appellees filed an Opposition and Cross Motion to Strike Evidence Not Part of Record.

IT IS ORDERED:

Mr. Maalah's Motion is DENIED and the Appellees' Cross Motion is deemed MOOT.

Only materials that were presented to the Alaska Workers' Compensation Board may be considered on appeal. See Appellate Rule 210(a). New materials attached to Mr. Maalah's motion that were not presented to the Board will not be added to the appeal record. Those new materials will be returned to Mr. Maalah at the end of this case.

Mr. Maalah is reminded that Appellate Rule 204(h) requires him to serve Trident Seafoods with a copy of everything that he files in court. Each time he files anything in court he must include a certificate of service showing that he has served Trident Seafoods with a copy of the material he is filing. See Appellate Rule 514(c).
